

Practice Your Presentation Like

A well practiced and enthusiastic talk will help you connect with your audience and keep their attention. Here are some key points to remember:

- Know your slides inside out.
- Speak freely.
- Speak with confidence---loud and clear.
- Speak at a steady pace, better too slow than too fast.
- Keep eye contact with your audience.